Who we are

The creative arm of Vertex

Vertex Media House is the creative arm of Vertex — an in-house team of video editors and designers who turn raw footage into content people actually watch.

We edit short-form and long-form videos and podcasts, design thumbnails that earn the click, and run YouTube channels end-to-end.

You shoot it, we handle everything after — with one dedicated manager, a shared project dashboard and clear updates at every stage.

How we work

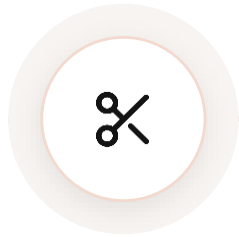

Four simple steps, every single video.

STEP 01

Share footage

Drop your raw clips in a shared folder — no extra instructions needed.

STEP 02

We edit

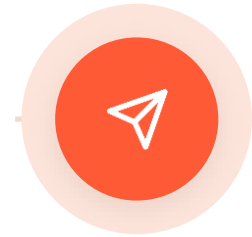

Your dedicated editor cuts, paces and captions for retention.

STEP 03

Review & revise

Leave comments on the dashboard; revisions come back fast.

STEP 04

Deliver & publish

Platform-ready exports — or we upload with SEO for you.

Real clients, real words

Reviews from creators and brand owners we've worked with.

I am extremely happy and satisfied with the results. Every shot is perfect. The quality of editing, attention to detail, and overall execution have been excellent. The final videos turned out exactly as I wanted! The entire process was smooth, and the results exceeded my expectations. I would definitely recommend working with them for professional video editing. Highly Recommend Team Vertex Media House.
